Company Extends System to Include Clerical Force.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 17 .- The salaries of from 3,000 to 4,000 office men and other salaried employes of the Westinghouse Electric and Manu- ing of "schooners" to "skiffs" is threat facturing Company, were advanced about 12 per cent here, through the extension of the bonus system from the shops, where it has been in force for a long time.

By the terms of the extension every

By the terms of the extension every employe will receive a bonus amounting to 8 per cent of his salary each month, providing total excussole time absent and late during that period does not exceed six hours incurred on not more than three occasions. An additional 4 per cent will be given every month to employes who have not lost any time through absence or tardiness.

The system is made effective from November 1, bringing a total of approximately 18,000 employes, official, clerical, and mechanical, under the plan. It was stated that other corporations were watching the innovation with a view to extending it to their plants, for while there have been many wage increases to men employed by the day, there have been very few for men who are paid by the month,

In her French songs she created a real atmosphere. The tone color of 'Lea Cloches' of Debussy was lovely. In the Pierne boat song an ingratiating rhythm and the vanishing of her final phrase made one feel that Miss Miller must be also the skillful violinist she is said to be. She was obliged to repeat the chanson "Butterflies." while the Saint-Saens "La Solitaire" was a dramatic note in this French group whose interpretations recalled the art of Maggie Teyte.

As a final encore, aftera group of songs in English, given with charming diction, Miss Miller sang a "Rispetto" of Wolf-Ferrari, putting a delightful touch into this modern Italian. Walter H. Golde, at the piano, was all an artist.
